

Believing that freedom of the press and a broad spectrum, of viewpoints is essential to a healthy democracy, I urge you not to change the rules in such a way that would allow further consolodation in the media.